

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Lee M. Zeldin

Senator Lee Zeldin Welcomes Islip Town Supervisor Home from Deployment

LEE M. ZELDIN July 3, 2014

| ISSUE: MILITARY AFFAIRS, MILITARY, TROOPS, VETERANS

RONKONKOMA—On Wednesday, June 2, 2014, Senator Lee M. Zeldin (R,C—Shirley) welcomed home long-time friend and Islip Town Supervisor, Commander Tom Croci, USN-Intel officer, from his 3rd deployment to Afghanistan.

On this last deployment, Commander Croci was stationed in Afghanistan from September 28, 2013-June 22, 2014 while supporting special operations forces. A Hero's welcome was held at MacArthur Airport in his honor and Senator Zeldin was on hand to present the Supervisor with a proclamation and to thank him for his dedicated service to our nation.

Senator Zeldin is pictured above with Commander Croci during the ceremony.