

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR
Thomas F. O'Mara

O'Mara hosting a free electronics recycling event in Bath on Saturday, September 17th ~ Proceeds from the event will help support ProAction of Steuben and Yates, Inc.

THOMAS F. O'MARA September 16, 2016

| ISSUE: ELECTRONIC RECYCLING

| COMMITTEE: ENVIRONMENTAL CONSERVATION

Free Electronics Recycling Event – September 17, 2016 in community partnership with

"By recycling computer monitors, laptops, televisions, cell phones and much more, we can keep these items out of landfills and lighten our impact on the environment – and we can do it at this event to support ProAction and their outstanding work and commitment to building stronger communities, individuals and families. Thank you."
– Senator Tom O'Mara
Chairman, Senate Environmental Conservation Committee

Proceeds from Sen. O'Mara's Free Electronic Recycling Event are going to: ProAction of Steuben and Yates, Inc.

Electronics Recycling:
Laptops, desktops, televisions, cell phones, video game consoles, printers, scanners, MP3 players and more.
(Visit www.sunnking.com/business/acceptable-materials/ for a comprehensive list of what can be recycled and, equally important, items that won't be accepted, including televisions and monitors containing broken glass or missing the outer casing.)

Saturday, September 17, 2016
9:30 am – 1:30 pm
Site of the former Philips Lighting Co.
(parking lot)
7265 State Route 54, Bath, NY 14810

I'm grateful to have the opportunity with this event to help support ProAction of Steuben and Yates and their outstanding work and commitment to building stronger communities, individuals and families.

Bath, N.Y., September 16--State Senator Tom O'Mara (R,C-Big Flats), Chairman of the Senate Environmental Conservation Committee, today reminded area residents that he's sponsoring a Free Electronics Recycling Event, in partnership with Time Warner Cable and Sunnking Electronics Recycling, in Bath tomorrow, Saturday, September 17, 2016.

The event is scheduled to run from 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the parking lot of the former Philips Lighting Company, 7265 Route 54 in Bath.

Area residents can drop off old or unused electronics at no charge. There is no limit on the number of items that can be dropped off.

O'Mara said that proceeds from the event will benefit ProAction of Steuben and Yates, Inc.

"I hope that as many area residents and businesses as possible will take advantage of this free recycling event to conveniently, safely and responsibly discard old electronics. Recycling computer monitors, laptops, televisions, cell phones and other electronics keeps these items out of landfills and lightens our impact on the environment," O'Mara said. "I'm also grateful to have the opportunity with this event to help support ProAction of Steuben and Yates and their outstanding work and commitment to building stronger communities, individuals and families."

Items that can be accepted include computers (desktops and laptops), printers, scanners, copiers, fax machines, video game consoles, televisions (CRT, LCD, LED, plasma), cell phones, IT and networking equipment, monitors (CRT, LCD, LED), MP3 players, tablets, and ink and toner cartridges, among many others.

Items that can't be accepted are CRT (cathode ray tube) tv's and monitors containing broken glass or missing the outer casings.

Visit sunnking.com for a full list of acceptable and non-acceptable items (<http://www.sunnking.com/consumer-business/acceptable-materials/>).