

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

John J. Flanagan

Statement From Senator Flanagan

JOHN J. FLANAGAN March 16, 2020

| ISSUE: CORONAVIRUS, PUBLIC SAFETY, CONSTITUENTS, 2ND SENATE DISTRICT

Out of an abundance of caution, our district office has been directed by the Senate to temporarily close in adherence with the recommended safety guidelines to help limit the spread of the coronavirus.

While our staff will be out of the office, they will be available to assist our constituents during this time. If anyone has a state issue that they need assistance with, we ask you to leave a message on our phone (631-361-2154) or send us an email at flanagan@nysenate.gov at your convenience. All constituents are asked to leave their name, phone number, address and email address.

We apologize for any inconvenience from this temporary situation and ask for your understanding.

Thank you and please stay safe.
