| COMMITTEE: HOUSING, CONSTRUCTION AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

After a Newsday Investigation revealed evidence of widespread racial discrimination and unequal treatment by real estate agents on Long Island, Senator Kavanagh, who chairs the Housing Committee, held a joint public hearing on December 12, 2019 with Consumer Affairs Committee Chair Kevin Thomas and Investigations Committee Chair James Skoufis to take testimony from those who participated in the investigation, brokers, fair housing experts, community based organizations, and individuals in the community. Due to the state of emergency declared in response to the spread of COVID-19, the Senate announced on March 30 that the April 17 hearing has been postponed to a date yet to be determined.
