Senator May presents Agnes McCray with New York State Senate 2023 Commendation Award

Agnes McCray has been a tireless advocate for people with disabilities for decades. She has fought for better access to public transportation, fair pay for home care workers, and much more. Senator Rachel May honored and celebrated her and all she has done with the New York State Senate 2023 Commendation Award.

Senator May also recognized Agnes' son, Charles Hudson, with a certificate of merit to celebrate his advocacy for people with disabilities.
