Brooklyn, NY- NYS Senator Kevin Parker bestowed a prestigious recognition of Ambassador Michael E. Brotherson, Consulate General of the Cooperative Republic of Guyana, for his extraordinary commitment to community service. Ambassador Brotherson's notable contributions to the Cooperative Republic of Guyana and his dedicated service within the Ministry have greatly influenced the progress and development of the nation.

According to a release, a proclamation was presented to Ambassador Michael E. Brotherson at his Manhattan office. He was also honored at the Emancipation Day of Guyana in August for the work he is doing in the community.

Reflecting on the achievements and commitment of Ambassador Brotherson, Senator Kevin Parker expresses his deep admiration: "I am incredibly impressed by Ambassador Michael E. Brotherson's exceptional dedication to community service. His tireless efforts to foster economic and social development in Guyana and his commitment to serving the Guyanese Diaspora are commendable. I am honored to recognize his outstanding contributions and grateful to have him as a valued member of our community."

Ambassador Brotherson started his career in the Foreign Service as a Foreign Service Officer II in 1991. Throughout the years, he has held numerous senior positions within the Ministry, including serving as a Senior Foreign Officer in the Office of the President. Ambassador Brotherson's exceptional leadership skills and strategic vision were demonstrated through his instrumental role in overseeing Guyana's launch of its Low Carbon Development Strategy.

In July 2022, Ambassador Brotherson was appointed Consul General at the Consulate General of the Cooperative Republic of Guyana in New York. The consulate is a vital hub for developments and events in Guyana and the Guyanese Diaspora. Its mission is to provide comprehensive services, historical context, and information on various programs while encouraging groups and individuals to register for engagement.

Senator Kevin Parker recognizes Ambassador Michael E. Brotherson as a trailblazer and an influential figure within the Cooperative Republic of Guyana and the Guyanese Diaspora.
