

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Monica R. Martinez

Senator Martinez to Host Grant Writing Workshop

MONICA R. MARTINEZ April 19, 2024

| ISSUE: GRANT WRITING, COMMUNITY EVENT, NOT-FOR-PROFIT FUNDING

Event will help local not-for-profit organizations learn about the state's grant process

New York State Senator Monica R. Martinez will host a grant writing workshop on Thursday, May 2, 2024, at 6:00 p.m. for local community organizations to assist them in securing funding for their programs and services. This free training will be presented by Marcos Maldonado, a Principal at MTHC, Inc., which is also co-sponsoring the event.

The workshop will be held at the Brentwood Fire Department and provide valuable insights into the grant application process, specifically tailored to not-for-profit organizations in New York State. Key topics will include:

- How to prequalify your not-for-profit organization within the New York State system.
- Utilizing the updated New York State Vendor Portal (formerly Grants Gateway) to search for grant opportunities that align with your organization's mission and goals.

Additionally, participants will have the opportunity to ask questions and receive personalized guidance on navigating a New York State Vendor Portal account.

Space is limited, so reserve your place by registering at tinyurl.com/SD4-GRANTS no later than Friday, April 26, 2024. For more information, please call 631-341-7111 or email

DiPalma@nysenate.gov.

This seminar is designed to empower participants with the knowledge and tools needed to effectively pursue grant funding opportunities. Whether you are new to grant writing or looking to enhance your skills, this event will provide valuable resources and support.
