Senator Kevin Parker Honors ANS "I Rise" 9th Year Anniversary Conference

JAUKIA MCCONEYHEAD July 30, 2024

Brooklyn, NY- State Senator Kevin Parker proudly honored the ANS 'I Rise' 9th Year Anniversary Conference, which celebrated the outstanding contributions of men, women, and youth who have made significant impacts in their communities. The event, held in partnership with the ANS Association, Nicole Aurelien Youth Foundation, and Chloe Natacha International Ministries, marked nine years of dedicated service and community empowerment.

"The ANS 'I Rise' Conference exemplifies the spirit of resilience and commitment that drives positive change. It was an honor to recognize and support such impactful work. The dedication and hard work of individuals and organizations like ANS Association, Nicole Aurelien Youth Foundation, and Chloe Natacha International Ministries inspire us all. Their mission to empower and uplift the community through education, mentorship, and resources is truly commendable," said Senator Parker.

ANS Association, named in honor of Anastasia, Natacha, and Sade, is a legacy created for the founder's daughters and all children of God. The organization is dedicated to fostering a worldwide unified brotherhood and sisterhood, focusing on empowering individuals through education, mentorship, and resources. Their vision includes informing, educating, building awareness, collaborating, and developing a professional environment for the community.

The event featured inspiring speeches, performances, and presentations, highlighting the remarkable stories of perseverance and success. The achievements underscored the importance of promoting community engagement and supporting initiatives that foster growth and development.

Senator Parker remains steadfast in his dedication to advocating for initiatives that uplift and empower communities across Brooklyn and beyond. The ANS 'I Rise' 9th Year Anniversary Conference serves as a reminder of the impact that can be achieved when we come together with a shared purpose.
