Senator Pam Helming presented a New York State Empire Award to Ryan's Wine and Spirits in Canandaigua in celebration of their 60th Anniversary. The Empire Award recognizes the contributions and achievements of businesses and organizations throughout New York State.

Ryan's has proudly served the Finger Lakes and Greater Rochester area since 1964. The business has always been family-owned and operated and is currently owned by JR Miller.

Senator Helming said, "As State Senator, supporting our local businesses will always be a priority for me. Congratulations to Ryan's Wine and Spirits on their 60th Anniversary! Special thank you to Owner JR Miller for his investment in the 54th District."
