SENATOR CANZONERI-FITZPATRICK'S BOOK DRIVE YIELDS OVER 1,000 BOOKS FOR UNDERSERVED COMMUNITIES

PATRICIA CANZONERI-FITZPATRICK February 11, 2025

(Malverne, NY) – Senator Patricia Canzoneri-Fitzpatrick is proud to announce the success of her office’s community book drive, which collected over 1,000 books to be distributed to underserved communities across the 9th Senate District.

The initiative aimed to promote literacy and foster a love of learning by providing books to individuals and families who may not have easy access to reading materials. Thanks to the overwhelming generosity of local residents, businesses, and community groups, the book drive exceeded expectations, ensuring that children and adults alike will benefit from the donated books.

“I’m incredibly grateful to everyone who participated in our book drive initiative,” said Senator Canzoneri-Fitzpatrick. “Every book donated is a step toward encouraging literacy and a lifelong love of reading. The response from our community has been incredible, and I look forward to continuing initiatives that make a positive impact on those in need.”

The donated books were given to Book Fairies, a non-profit organization dedicated to distributing reading materials to underserved communities across Long Island.
