

2013-K902

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION honoring Marian Tinari upon the occasion of her selection as Brehon of the Year by the Brehon Society of Suffolk County

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body to recognize the achievements of those individuals who substantially contribute to their communities and careers through outreach and dedication; and

WHEREAS, Individuals such as Marian Tinari exert a strong, positive influence in her role as counsel for the District Administrative Judge and is an integral part of all administrative decisions which are crucial to the court system; and

WHEREAS, This Legislative Body is justly proud to honor Marian Tinari upon the occasion of her selection as Brehon of the Year by the Brehon Society of Suffolk County, an Association of Irish Lawyers, to be celebrated on Thursday, March 13, 2014, at the Irish Coffee Pub, East Islip, New York; and

WHEREAS, Marian Tinari has been selected for this high honor in recognition and appreciation of her ability to counsel judges and members of the court network on issues which arise, and for her ability to manage the system effectively in Suffolk County which has a population of 1.5 million people and a multifaceted court system; and

WHEREAS, Marian Tinari, prior to her present role, was not only an attorney with the Suffolk County District Administrative Judge's office but has served as Principal Law Clerk to Suffolk County Surrogate Court Judge John Czygier, Jr.; and

WHEREAS, She joined the court system as a Law Clerk to the New York State Court of Claims Judge Michael F. Mullen who presided over many high profile cases that Marian Tinari had extensive involvement in; and

WHEREAS, She also served as an Assistant DA where she successfully prosecuted numerous felony cases and had a career at Chase Manhattan

Bank where she was promoted many times; and

WHEREAS, Marian Tinari has not only been greatly successful in her career but has also been a dedicated member of numerous organizations and professional associations; and

WHEREAS, Marian Tinari is a past president of the Suffolk County Brehon Society, a past co-chair of the Suffolk County Bar Association's Court Committee, and is presently co-chair of the Suffolk County Women in the Courts Committee, and serves on many more honorable committees and foundations; and

WHEREAS, In addition to committee and organization membership, Marian Tinari is a frequent lecturer concerning certain law, organizations, and academic institutions, and is a well-regarded author who has been published in legal periodicals about numerous judicial decisions; and

WHEREAS, Furthermore, Marian Tinari's dedication and devotion to her career and organizations is both inspiring and outstanding; and

WHEREAS, It is with great pleasure that this Legislative Body acknowledges Marian Tinari for her exceptional work in her career and her dedication, fully confident that she will continue to enjoy the many sparkling successes she has achieved thus far; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to honor Marian Tinari upon the occasion of her selection as Brehon of the Year by the Brehon Society of Suffolk County; and be it further

RESOLVED, That copies of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to Marian Tinari.