LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION memorializing Andrew M. Cuomo to proclaim April 13-19, 2014, as Osteopathic Medicine Week in the State of New York

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body to memorialize Governor Andrew M. Cuomo to proclaim April 13-19, 2014, as Osteopathic Medicine Week in the State of New York, in conjunction with the observance of National Osteopathic Medicine Week, and to pay tribute to the osteopathic physicians of this great Empire State; and

WHEREAS, There are currently more than 100,000 osteopathic physicians (DOs) and osteopathic medical students in the United States; this figure includes a growing number of women and minorities; and

WHEREAS, DOs have made tremendous accomplishments to the American health care system since the osteopathic medical profession was founded by Andrew Taylor Still, MD, DO, in 1874; and

WHEREAS, DOs have treated U.S. presidents; olympic athletes; contributed to the fight against AIDS and the fight for civil rights; served on nationwide health care panels; and

WHEREAS, DOs are fully-licensed to prescribe medicine and practice in all speciality areas of medicine, including surgery; and

WHEREAS, Close to 10% of all patient visits in the United States are to osteopathic physicians who provide comprehensive medical care, including primary care, specialty care, preventative medicine, diagnosis and the appropriate use of drugs, surgery, manipulation and hospital referral, often practicing in rural and urban medically underserved areas; and

WHEREAS, DOs are trained to consider the health for the whole person and use their hands to help diagnose and treat their patients; and

WHEREAS, New York State has approximately 5,000 licensed osteopathic physicians, who represent the fifth largest osteopathic physician population in the country, and who are dedicated to improving the health of their communities through education and awareness-based efforts, as well as by delivering quality health services; and

WHEREAS, The citizens of New York State recognize the need for osteopathic physicians who are committed to bringing attention to improving the health of Americans, regardless of age, income level, or ethnicity; and

WHEREAS, New York State has two college of osteopathic medicine, The New York Institute of Technology (NYIT) College of Osteopathic Medicine in Old Westbury, and the Touro College of Osteopathic Medicine-New York, in Harlem, both of which train students who enter primary care specialties in numbers well above the national average; and

WHEREAS, Osteopathic physicians deserve acknowledgment for providing high-quality, comprehensive care to New Yorkers across the state of New York; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to memorialize Governor Andrew M. Cuomo to proclaim April 13-19, 2014, as Osteopathic Medicine Week in the State of New York, in conjunction with the observance of National Osteopathic Medicine Week, in appreciation of osteopathic physicians for their contributions to health care; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to The Honorable Andrew M. Cuomo, Governor of the State of New York.
