LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION honoring Adam Liebowitz upon the occasion of his designation as recipient of the 2014 Good Deed Award by the Village of East Hills

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body to recognize and pay tribute to those young people within the great Empire State who have made strong contributions to their communities and who serve as role models for their peers; and

WHEREAS, Attendant to such concern, and in full accord with its long-standing traditions, this Legislative Body is justly proud to honor Adam Liebowitz upon the occasion of his designation as recipient of the 2014 Good Deed Award by the Village of East Hills, New York; this auspicious occasion was celebrated at the Village's Board of Trustees Meeting on Wednesday, February 26, 2014; and

WHEREAS, The Good Deed Award is the highest honor given each year, by the Village of East Hills to one young student for outstanding charitable contributions and service to the community; and

WHEREAS, Adam Liebowitz was presented with this prestigious award by Mayor Michael Koblenz at a ceremony attended by the East Hill Board of Trustees, Officers from the JCC, and teachers and administrators from East Hill School, as well as many East Hill residents and family members; and

WHEREAS, Adam Liebowitz, a fourth grade student at Harbor Hill School, is being honored for his extraordinary charitable efforts on behalf of the social services programs at the Sid Jacobson Jewish Community Center (JCC) in East Hills; and

WHEREAS, This esteemed young man organized a highly successful toy drive, which raised a significant sum of money to benefit less fortunate adults and children throughout Long Island and Queens, New York; and

WHEREAS, At the age of nine years old, Adam Liebowitz is in his second year of fundraising with the JCC's social services programs, and serves as chair of the auction's Toy Drive Committee; and

WHEREAS, Rare indeed is the impressive dedication shown by an individual for the benefit of others which Adam Liebowitz has displayed at such a young age; and

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body that when individuals of such noble aims and accomplishments are brought to our attention, they should be celebrated and recognized by all the citizens of this great Empire State; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to honor Adam Liebowitz upon the occasion of his designation as recipient of the 2014 Good Deed Award by the Village of East Hills; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to Adam Liebowitz.
