

2013-J5773

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION congratulating Daniel H. Strader upon the occasion of winning first place honors in the Novice Division at the 2014 Vermont Body Building Championships

WHEREAS, Athletic competition enhances the moral and physical development of the men and women of this State, preparing them for the future by instilling in them the value of hard work, encouraging a standard of healthy living, imparting a desire for success and developing a sense of determination and competition; and

WHEREAS, Excellence and success in competitive sports can be achieved only through strenuous practice, commitment and dedication; and

WHEREAS, On April 19, 2014, Daniel H. Strader claimed first place honors in the Novice Division of the Vermont Body Building Championships, held in Burlington, Vermont; and

WHEREAS, Daniel Strader also earned second place in the Open Competition for his weight division; and

WHEREAS, Daniel Strader, a 2005 graduate of Heuvelton High School and a physical therapy assistant at Health Services of Northern, New York, trained for hours every day for over 20 weeks in preparation for the Vermont Body Building Championships; and

WHEREAS, The 2014 Vermont Body Building Championships drew people from all over the Northeast, including the states of Vermont, New York, Maine, Massachusetts and New Hampshire; and

WHEREAS, Through his dedication to the sport of body building, his relentless diligence, and his countless hours of training, Daniel Strader has achieved excellence in the sport of body building; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to congratulate Daniel H. Strader upon the occasion of winning the Novice

Division at the 2014 Vermont Body Building Championships; and be it further

RESOLVED, That copies of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to Daniel H. Strader.