LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION memorializing Governor Andrew M. Cuomo to proclaim November 2014 as Home Care Month in the State of New York

WHEREAS, Home care services provide high quality, compassionate health care services to those in need, especially at times of community or personal health care crisis; and

WHEREAS, Home care is the most preferred method of health care delivery among disabled, elderly, and chronically ill individuals, eager to live independently in their own homes as long as they possibly can; and

WHEREAS, Home care services allow families to stay together, and provide for greater health, dignity and comfort in our communities; and

WHEREAS, Home care in the United States is a growing alternative to hospitalization or other institution-based forms of health care for acute and chronic illnesses, providing care to millions of Americans each year; and

WHEREAS, Thousands of everyday heroes such as home care nurses, therapists and aides work tirelessly to provide professional health and palliative care and support to millions of Americans in need of quality health services; and

WHEREAS, These dedicated home care professionals and volunteers form a support network that continues to play a vital role in health care delivery for our nation's disabled, infirm and aging population; and

WHEREAS, The National Association for Home Care & Hospice, and thousands of home care agencies across the United States have declared the month of November 2014 as National Home Care Month, and are calling on all Americans to observe these occasions with appropriate ceremonies and activities; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to memorialize Governor Andrew M. Cuomo to proclaim November 2014 as Home

Care Month in the State of New York; and be it further

RESOLVED, That copies of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to The Honorable Andrew M. Cuomo, Governor of the State of New York, the Wellness Home Care, Ltd., and Sullivan County Public Health and Elant, Inc.
