

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Jeffrey D. Klein

Klein Mingles With Crowd At Summer Concert Series

JEFFREY D. KLEIN August 15, 2007

BRONXVILLE-Dropping by one of his Summertime Symphonies, Senator Klein met with residents of Bronxville as they enjoyed an evening of free music performed by Jason Nazzaro. Senator Klein addressed the eager crowd, speaking of his own love of music and the pleasure of summer nights. The concert was one in a series that the Senator is sponsoring yet again, throughout the 34th senate district.

In addition, the Senator enjoyed one of his free magic shows at the New Rochelle YMCA where John Turdo performed for dozens of enthusiastic on-lookers.

Stop by one of the eight remaining concerts of the season to meet Senator Klein and take advantage of this fantastic summer activity!

For a complete concert schedule, please consult the sidebar of this website, or call the Office of Senator Klein at 718-822-2049.