

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Jeffrey D. Klein

Klein And Eastchester Local Officials Survey Damages

JEFFREY D. KLEIN April 19, 2007

EASTCHESTER, NY, April 20th –Senator Jeff Klein (D-Westchester/Bronx), joined with local Eastchester officials, Mayor John Fitzpatrick of Tuckahoe, Mayor Mary Marvin of Bronxville, and The Regional Director of SEMO (State Emergency Management Office), Mark Ferrari to survey the damages caused by the recent Nor'easter.

High School, which has been closed until Wednesday due to flood damage.

Tuckahoe.

In both locations the Senator pledged to support the county's call for intervention from FEMA (Federal Emergency Management Agency), and to help secure the necessary funds to make vital repairs.