Senator Klein, Miss USA Present 'Valentines To Veterans' At Bronx V.A. Hospital

JEFFREY D. KLEIN February 8, 2006

Senator Klein and Miss USA 2005, Chelsea Cooley, are pictured here with 101-year old veteran Isaac Barkey at Senator Klein's Annual Valentines for Veterans event at the Bronx VA Hospital.

Hospital as part of Senator Klein's annual 'Valentines for Veterans' program.

"The sacrifice our brave veterans have made for this country should be commemorated 365 days a year—not just Veteran's Day. That is why I think it is so important to bring our entire community—especially our children—together to salute these veterans' service to our nation." said Klein.

Charlotte.

The schools participating in the program were PS 14 in Throggs Neck, PS 19 in Woodlawn, PS 83 and 108 in Morris Park, PS 175 in City Island, and the Chapel School in Bronxville.

Chelsea has spent the first part of her year championing the official causes of MISS USA®, which include breast and ovarian cancer education, research, and legislation. She will continue to travel both nationally and internationally as an advocate for organizations such as the Ovarian Cancer Research Fund, the National Breast Cancer Coalition, Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation, and Gilda's Club, among others.
