State Senator Malcolm A. Smith To Host Listening Tour

MALCOLM A. SMITH July 11, 2005

State Senator Malcolm A. Smith (D-Queens) announced today that he will be embarking on a district wide listening tour that will take place during the months of July and September.

"After a productive and historic session year, I am excited to visit these communities and discuss important issues with my constituents. This is an opportunity for me to hear firsthand the questions and concerns that are most important to the people I represent," said Senator Smith.

The dates of the listening tour are as follows, the locations will be released in the near future:

7/20/05 Far Rockaway

7/21/05 Rosedale

7/26/05 Queens Village

7/27/05 Flushing

7/28/05 Briarwood/Kew Garden Hills

9/20/05 St. Albans/Jamaica

9/21/05 Far Rockaway

"I know that this listening tour will provide me with some insight into the lives of my constituents, as well as valuable information that I can better serve the community later in the year," said Senator Smith.

For more information on the listening tour please contact the district office of Senator Malcolm A. Smith at 718-528-4290.
