Buffalo, NY – New York State Senator Antoine M. Thompson (D-Parts of Erie & Niagara Counties) and the Majority Conference of the New York State Senate will be holding a home foreclosure prevention workshop on Saturday, August 1st from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm at Bennett High School at 2885 Main Street in Buffalo.

“With the current state of the economy, it is important to give residents of New York a cost free opportunity to meet with banks and mortgage servicers about payment programs to prevent home or property foreclosure,” stated Senator Thompson.

The purpose of this forum is to provide residents with an educational opportunity to learn about home foreclosure prevention through educational seminars and independent consultations with mortgage counselors. Co-sponsors for this event are US Senator Charles Schumer and the NYS Banking Department. For more details, please contact NYS Senator Antoine M. Thompson’s District Office at 716.854.8705.
