8/06/2009: Senate Passes NYC School Governance Legislation

SHIRLEY L. HUNTLEY August 5, 2009

| ISSUE: EDUCATION

“As a State Senator I was given a mandate from my district to ensure their concerns are heard and they are afforded a seat at the table when it comes to the education of the city’s 1.1 million school children,” said Senator Shirley Huntley, School Governance Task Force co-chair. “I am pleased key amendments included in the school governance bill will increase the accountability and transparency of the city’s education system, and more importantly increase parental involvement
