

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Eric T. Schneiderman

Sen. Schneiderman's Statement On Marriage Equality Vote

ERIC T. SCHNEIDERMAN December 2, 2009

| ISSUE: CIVIL RIGHTS

"This is a sad day for the state of New York, and a heartbreaking defeat for equality. But this fight is far from over. Now that we know where every member of the Senate stands on the issue of marriage equality, we have our work cut out for us. We will keep fighting, keep working, and keep pushing until every New Yorker has the fundamental civil rights that come with a marriage license. The day will come soon when ALL men and women of this state will be recognized as equal, endowed by their Creator with the unalienable rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Justice and equality will prevail."
