Senator John Flanagan (2nd Senate District) recently appeared as a guest on “TV 10/55 Focus,” a weekly half-hour news program that examines the issues important to Long Island residents.

During the half-hour show, Senator Flanagan and host Richard Rose discussed the impact Governor David Paterson's upcoming budget proposal could have on Long Islanders. The two also discussed the ongoing situation in Haiti and the important elections facing the state this November.

The show is scheduled to air on TV 10/55 this Sunday at 2:30 p.m.
