

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Joseph A. Griffo

Griffo Condemns Senate Holiday Break as a "Charade"

JOSEPH A. GRIFFO March 30, 2010

| ISSUE: RULES, GOVERNMENT OPERATIONS, LEGISLATURE, EXECUTIVE, BUDGET

Senator Griffo voted against emergency spending that would allow the Senate to take a weeklong recess despite the looming budget deadline. On the floor of the Senate, Griffo explained his 'no' vote: "I just think it's unacceptable. We should continue to work and strive for this community objective and the responsibility that has been entrusted to us. For that reason, I vote no."

Listen to the news report at the link below.

<http://www.northcountrypublicradio.org/news/story/15441/state-senate-approves-emergency-spending-vows-to-keep-working-toward-final-budget>