

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Eric Adams

NYS Senator Eric Adams Rallies Brooklyn to Support the Census: Stand Up and Be Counted!

ERIC ADAMS April 1, 2010

| ISSUE: CENSUS

MEDIA ADVISORY

NYS Senator Eric Adams holds a rally to spread the word to all communities that the census is safe, simple, and crucial.

Senator Adams' statement: "This rally is meant to inspire every individual and family in the community to fill out and return the census form so that our districts are never again short-changed. Census forms have been simplified this year and should be filled out by everyone, regardless of economic or immigration status. Our city is routinely undercounted; this year, we will change that!

"Progress and improvement are everyone's responsibilities: fill out your census form and mail it back promptly - stand up and be counted for Census 2010!"

Date/Time: Thursday, April 1, 4:00 pm – 7:00 pm

Location: Utica Ave & Eastern Parkway subway station (directly outside)
Brooklyn, New York

Presiding: NYS Senator Eric Adams

Senator Adams will be available to the press after 4:30 pm.