Niagara Falls, NY – Join New York State Senator Antoine Thompson (D-parts of Erie & Niagara counties) for a tour of the Niagara Falls Public Library on Thursday, October 7th at 2:30 pm. Students, along with other members of the public now have access to 40 new computers thanks to $30,000 Senator Thompson secured for library funding.

It's estimated that hundreds of people pass through the Niagara Falls Public Library each week, where students use the computers as a study tool, while adults use them for resume writing and to search for employment opportunities.

WHO: Senator Antoine Thompson

WHAT: Library Tour

WHEN: Thursday, October 7, 2010
