Senator Fuschillo Honors Merrick's Small Business Person of the Year

CHARLES J. FUSCHILLO JR. November 5, 2010

| ISSUE: SMALL BUSINESS

Senator Charles J. Fuschillo, Jr. (R-Merrick) recently honored Cathy O'Malley for being named Small Business Person of the Year by the Merrick Chamber of Commerce. Ms. O'Malley, a Vice-President for First National Bank of Long Island, is deeply involved in the community. She serves as Treasurer of the Merrick Chamber of Commerce, and has played an integral role in the planning and execution of many Chamber events. In addition, she serves as Vice-President of the Merrick Kiwanis Club, a community service organization which provides assistance to those in need. Senator Fuschillo (third right) is pictured as he congratulates Cathy O'Malley (right center) on being named Small Business Person of the Year by the Merrick Chamber of Commerce. They are joined by (l-r) Julie Freund, Branch Manager of First National Bank of Long Island's Bellmore branch, Michael Vittorio, President of First National Bank of Long Island, Town of Hempstead Councilwoman Angie Cullin, Assemblyman Dave McDonough, Town of Hempstead Town Clerk Mark Bonilla, and Town of Hempstead Councilman Gary Hudes.
