New York State Senator Charles J. Fuschillo, Jr. (R-Merrick) today joined with the Freeport Chamber of Commerce in celebrating the grand re-opening of Compare Foods. Other local officials, including Assemblyman Dave McDonough, Town of Hempstead Supervisor Kate Murray, Town of Hempstead Councilwoman Angie Cullin, Nassau County Legislator Dave Denenberg, Freeport Mayor Andrew Hardwick, and Freeport Village Trustees Bill White, Jorge Martinez, and Carmen Pineyro, joined Senator Fuschillo and the Chamber at the grand re-opening celebration.

Senator Fuschillo congratulated the Jorge Family, owners of Compare Foods, on the newly remodeled store's grand re-opening and wished them many more years of continued success.

Compare Foods, which is located on 111 West Merrick Road, between Guy Lombardo Avenue and South Ocean Avenue, has been a fixture in the Village of Freeport for years. It aims to provide the community with quality products and exceptional service at low prices.
