Senator Golden and Santa Claus Host Christmas Tree Lighting

MARTIN J. GOLDEN   December 15, 2010

Brooklyn- State Senator Marty Golden, in partnership with the South West Brooklyn Parks Task Force, hosted a Christmas Tree lighting last evening in McKinley Park to bring out the holiday spirit at this time of year.

Senator Golden stated, "During the Christmas season, and all year, residents of our community should join together in the Christmas spirit and exhibit good will to serve the most needy." The Christmas Tree lighting featured Christmas caroling, hot chocolate and a special visit from Santa Claus.
