

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Joseph E. Robach

Community Connection for Week Ending January 14, 2011

JOSEPH E. ROBACH January 14, 2011

the Civil Rights movement.

The City of Rochester will be hosting a number of family events this weekend and on Monday. For a list of all the events, visit my website at robach.nysenate.gov.

Also, Monday morning the Martin Luther King Day Community Interfaith Worship Service will take place from 8:45 until 10:30 a.m. at Kodak Hall at the Eastman Theatre. Following the service there will be a Civil Rights March from Kodak Hall down East Main Street.

I hope that you and your family will be able to take part in some of the events this weekend to celebrate this important day.

The Start of the 2011 Legislative Session

Earlier this week, I had the opportunity to meet with Lieutenant place at the Aquinas Institute, 1127 Dewey Avenue. The event begins at 7:00.

On Monday, the Maplewood Family YMCA will re-open with a Ribbon Cutting Ceremony and a Martin Luther King Jr. Day Celebration beginning at 11:00 a.m.

On Thursday, January 20th, the Rochester City School District Board of Education and Superintendent Jean-Claude Brizard's State of Our Schools: A Strategic

Here is Senator Robach's Community Connection for the week ending Friday, January 14th, 2011. You can view a full-screen version by clicking on the link below.