SENATOR PARKER REQUESTS MAJORITY LEADER SKELOS NOT TO DISENFRANCHISE
VOTERS

(Albany, NY) Today, Senator Parker wrote to Senate Majority Leader Dean Skelos asking him not to disenfranchise New York's voters by adopting unconstitutional changes to the Senate rules. "The Republican Majority's action in undermining the Constitutional power of the Lieutenant Governor to break deadlocks in the Senate subverts the democratic process," said Senator Parker. "Rather than adopting a transparent and deliberative process in changing the Rules of the Senate, the Republican Majority wrote their changes in secret, in a manner calculated to avoid as much public scrutiny as possible." continued Parker.
