Senator Ball Calls for Veterans Open House

GREG BALL March 1, 2011

BREWSTER, NY-State Senator Greg Ball (R, C – Patterson) will be hosting an open house for Veterans at his Senate District Office in Brewster. Senator Ball has invited Veterans to meet with him to share their feedback on issues ranging from PTSD, joblessness, homelessness, workforce transition, family support services and many other critical issues.

Senator Ball's Veteran's Open House is being held in preparation for Senator Ball's Veterans Hill Day, which will be held in Albany at the State Capitol on March 14th.

During the Veteran's Hill Day, Senator Ball will be holding a committee meeting to introduce key veterans bills.

Following Ball's committee meeting, he will hold a hearing to hear testimony from veterans and leading experts on vital veterans issues, including proposed cuts to veterans homes
