need to know.

Did you know the first St. Patrick's Day Parade took place not in Ireland, but in the United States back in 1762. Irish soldiers serving in the English military marched way back then throughout New York City.

Now a little more history of St. Patrick's Day. March 17th marks the religious feast day of St. Patrick. Irish families would often attend church in the morning and celebrate in the afternoon.

And in Chicago, the Chicago River is dyed green each year! I hope to see you on Saturday at the parade!
