ensuring an on-time budget.

I believe this budget is a step in the right direction to getting our state back on track and one we need to take. There are many challenges ahead, but I think it is very important we move in a different direction and this budget does that. Like many working families in this tough economic time, we are making some tough decisions. This budget reduces government spending, contains no new taxes, and protects vital services.

In the coming days, more specific details regarding this budget will be available on my web site.

Section Five Football Hall of Fame Gets a New Home

Last Saturday, I had the opportunities and proceed with go to Japan relief efforts.

On Thursday, April 7th, Bike Zone will hold a grand opening and ribbon cutting at their new Greece location (2100 Ridge Road West) beginning at 6:00 p.m.

Section Five Football will induct the members of the 2011 class during a ceremony at the R.I.T. Inn and Conference Center also on Thursday, at 7:00 p.m.

The first Honor Flight Welcome Home is next Saturday, April 9th, as the flight is scheduled to land at

Here is this week's edition of Community Connection. This week, I discuss the New York State Budget agreement, the dedication of the Section Five Football Hall of Fame at Sahlen's Stadium in downtown Rochester, and provide you some of the great events coming up around my district next week. As always, click on the link below to view it in full-screen.
