

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Joseph E. Robach

Community Connection for Week Ending May 15th

JOSEPH E. ROBACH May 13, 2011

The law is named after a 5-year-old Queens boy and a 17-year-old Staten Island girl who were killed as a result of such races.

These races also occur in our back yards. Late Sunday night, Greece Police broke up a drag race on Bellwood Drive. According to reports, at least 100 cars showed up for this race. As a result, two cars were towed away and 75 tickets were issued.

For more information on this newly passed legislation, Senate Bill S.2938A, visit my website.

Hilton Lady
Cadets Go
Pink
The Hilton Lady

On Tuesday May 17th, Alternatives for Battered Women presents its Second Annual Celebration of Hope from 8:00 a.m. until 9:00 a.m. During this event, ABW will honor survivors whose lives serve as an example of triumph over adversity.

Also Tuesday, The College at Brockport Rochester Educational Opportunity Center will hold its 2011 Graduation ceremony at the Eastman Theatre beginning at 7:00 p.m. Congratulations to all the graduates!

Sunday, May 22nd, the 41st

Here is Senator Robach's Community Connection for the week ending Sunday, May 15th. In this week's edition, new legislation regarding high-speed car races, the Hilton Girls Lacrosse Team goes pink for breast cancer awareness, and some of the events taking place around the district in the coming week.