

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Joseph E. Robach

Community Connection - May 22, 2011

JOSEPH E. ROBACH May 20, 2011

release from prison.

The law is intended to increase the safety of all New Yorkers by providing access to the list of convicted violent offenders.

Brittany's Law is named for 12-year old Brittany Passalacqua, who was murdered in Geneva in 2009 along with her mother Helen Buchel by a violent convicted felon who had been released from prison. The killer, John Edward Brown, was on parole at the time of the murder.

To learn more about this legislation, visit my website at www.robach.nysenate.gov.

Erie Harbor
Wall
Raising
This week, I

On Monday, May 23rd, AIDS Care Rochester will officially open their Adult Day Health Program with a ribbon cutting ceremony and tours from 5:30 until 7:00 p.m.

Wednesday, May 25th, beginning at 5:30 p.m., the Rochester YMCA holds its 157th Annual Meeting and Volunteer Recognition Celebration. Adult and youth volunteers will be honored throughout the evening at the Rochester Riverside Convention Center.

The Rochester Genesee Regional Transportation

Senator Robach's Community Connection for the week ending May 22nd, 2011

In this week's issue:

- The New York State Senate passes Brittany's Law
- Events taking place around the district this week
- Erie Harbor Wall Raising Ceremony

As always, to download a full-screen version, click on the link below.