Senator Rev. Rubén Díaz along with Thousands of Evangelicals Will march in the Evangelical Children’s Parade

State Senator Rev. Rubén Díaz states that with more than 50 floats, marching bands, and displays of biblical passages, thousands of Evangelical Christians will march in The Evangelical Children’s Parade which will be held this Saturday, June 18 at 12:00 pm throughout Third Avenue, from 97th Street to 118th Street in “El Barrio”, the heart of the Hispanic community.

Men, women and children will march in support of their moral, traditional and family values.

“It is important that every pastor, congregation and fellow believer join me in this parade to show our community and our state that we will continue to defend our faith in the midst of all the negativity in the world,” stated Senator Díaz.

A platform will be located on 3rd Avenue, between 116th Street and 117th Street, where dignitaries and different personalities will observe the parade.
