

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Eric Adams

Community Board 17 Announces their Civilian Observation Patrol Program

ERIC ADAMS October 11, 2011

| ISSUE: NEW YORK CITY

On Monday, October 3, 2011, elected officials, officers from the 67th police precinct, clergy, community residents and neighboring safety patrol groups joined Community Board 17 at their headquarters to announce the launching of their Civilian Observation Patrol program. Dedicated residents will be enlisted to observe their neighborhoods and report incidents that require police attention. Deputy Chief of Staff Sheila Wimberly attended on behalf of Senator Adams.

