

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Owen H. Johnson

Winifred B. Mack Presented With NY State Senate Resolution

OWEN H. JOHNSON October 28, 2011

Senator Owen H. Johnson presented Winifred B. Mack with a New York State Senate Resolution marking her designation as 2011 Ambassador of the Arts by the YMCA Boulton Center for the Performing Arts.

Winifred B. Mack, as Executive Director of Southside Hospital, has overcome financial challenges, strengthened physician and community relationships as well as built and expanded clinical programs to fortify Southside's position as the healthcare heart of its community. Prior to becoming the Executive Director, she served as Southside Hospital's Deputy Executive and Vice President of Patient Services.

Ms. Mack was instrumental in facilitating Long Island's transplantation services. She testified before the United States Congress in support of the National Organ Transplant Act which was sponsored by then-Congressman Al Gore.

Ms. Mack earned her Master's Degree in Public Administration and a Bachelor of Science Degree from Long Island University CW Post College, and her Associate's Degree from Nassau County Community College.

She was honored at the YMCA Boulton Center for the Performing Arts on May 7, 2011.
