

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Jack M. Martins

Senator Martins Visits Vincent Smith School in Port Washington

JACK M. MARTINS December 5, 2011

| ISSUE: EDUCATION

Senator Jack M. Martins recently visited the Vincent Smith School in Port Washington to spend some time with the sixth grade students. The Vincent Smith School is a premier private school that serves the needs of various communities with its commitment to providing outstanding education with a supportive and nurturing setting.

“The Vincent Smith School does an outstanding job in providing a well-rounded education,” said Senator Martins. “The school also provides a nurturing environment in which the students can succeed.”