

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Ruben Diaz

PBA President Pat Lynch to Join Senator Diaz at Saturday's Bronx Three Kings Day Celebration

RUBEN DIAZ January 6, 2012

| ISSUE: CHILDREN

January 6, 2012

For Immediate Release

The Police Benevolent Association President, Pat Lynch, will join New York State Senator Ruben Diaz along with Bronx Borough President Ruben Diaz, Jr., Assemblyman Marcos Crespo, Ambassador J.C. Kao from the Taipei Economic and Cultural Office in New York, the New York Hispanic Clergy Organization, HealthPlus and WellCare on Saturday, January 7, 2011 at 12:00 p.m. to celebrate the visit of Three Kings Day for the Children of the south Bronx at PS 5 (located at 564 Jackson Avenue on the corner 149th Street) in the Bronx.

Senator Reverend Diaz stated: "I am happy and honored that the Police Benevolent Association this year has joined the above mentioned organizations that annually come to the Bronx to make this magnificent event possible by contributing toys to be given at this celebration where more than 1,000 toys and bookbags will be distributed to children between the ages of 1-9 years old."