Senator Golden to Honor the Late Senator Christopher Mega: “Respected Politician, Distinguished Citizen and Devoted Member of His Community”

MARTIN J. GOLDEN January 9, 2012

Brooklyn – State Senator Martin J. Golden (R-C-I, Brooklyn) will introduce a New York State Senate Legislative Resolution tomorrow during session honoring the late Senator Christopher J. Mega, who died on Sunday, October 30, 2011. The resolution is expected to pass and members of the Mega family, including his wife Madelyn, will be in the Senate gallery.

Mega, who served as a State Senator, State Assemblyman, State Judge and long time civic leader, graduated from Fort Hamilton High School, studied at St. Francis College and attended Brooklyn Law School.
