Senator Martins Welcomes New Business to Elmont

JACK M. MARTINS January 17, 2012

| ISSUE: SMALL BUSINESS

Senator Jack Martins welcomed yet another new business to Elmont's "Hempstead Turnpike Corridor" this past week. Ricki's Matos opened his "Dominican Style" Barbershop across from the old Argo Theatre to rave reviews. Matos has worked in the Elmont, Franklin Square and Mineola communities for years. He recently branched out on his own to open his small business on Hempstead Turnpike. Senator Martins dropped by Ricki's Barbershop to wish him luck! "Riki has many friends in Mineola and when I heard he was opening his own barbershop in Elmont, I wanted to drop by and wish him well! Small business is the backbone of our communities and I'm really proud that Riki is investing right here in the Elmont, South Floral Park and Franklin Square communities," said Senator Martins
