

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Joseph E. Robach

Community Connection for Week Ending January 29th, 2012

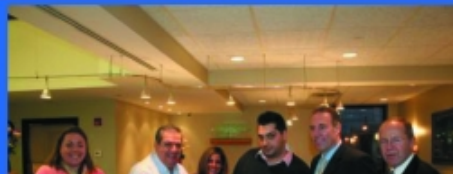

JOSEPH E. ROBACH January 27, 2012

Senate Bills S.3452 would create felony charges for wrong-way and other reckless drivers. The legislation would additionally create a crime of aggravated reckless driving for specific offenses.

The Senate also passed S.164C, which would create new penalties for individuals supervising another driver while also under the influence of drugs or alcohol, also known as Abbagail's Law.

You can read additional details for both of these pieces of legislation by visiting my website.
