

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Joseph E. Robach

Community Connection For Week Ending April 1, 2012

JOSEPH E. ROBACH March 30, 2012

Beginning this Sunday, April 1, clothing, footwear and related items sold for less than $110 each will be exempt from the New York State's 4% sales tax. The elimination of this sales tax is estimated to save New York taxpayers $210 million. The 4% state portion of the sales tax was eliminated in an effort to help consumers save money while bringing in additional revenue to stores throughout the state. This is a step in the right direction, but there is still plenty of work to be done. I'll continue working to ease the tax burden on hardworking families.	10:30 a.m. Also on Monday, at 11:00 a.m., ROC River Coffee will hold its grand opening of its new location. ROC River is at 234 Andrews Street, in the Kirstein Building. On Tuesday, April 3rd, the AT&T Foundation will be making a presentation to 'Women Helping Girls'. The event takes place at The American Association of University Women, 494 East Avenue at 10:00 a.m.
Soy Unica Soy Latina Rally Recently, I had the

In this week's Community Connection: Reducing Taxes in New York, Upcoming Events around the community in the week ahead, and looking back at the Soy Unica Soy Latina Rally last weekend. Click on the link below to download this week's edition in full-screen view.