

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Kenneth P. LaValle

LaValle: Additional Aid Helps Stabilize Taxes.

KENNETH P. LAVALLE June 26, 2012

New York State Senator Kenneth P. LaValle (R,C,I – Port Jefferson) said today that he was able to secure additional monies separate and apart from the state aid formula for schools and libraries that can be used to stabilize tax rates and provide additional relief for taxpayers. Additionally, LaValle said, funds were also secured for arts education programs as well as anti-bullying and domestic violence programs in the First Senatorial District.

Library	Aid
Amagansett Free Library	$500.00
Baiting Hollow Free Library	$500.00
Bridgehampton – Hampton Library	$2,200.00
Center Moriches Public Free Library	$2,200.00
Comsewogue Public Library	$2,200.00
Cutchogue – New Suffolk Library	$2,200.00
East Hampton Library	$2,200.00
Fisher’s Island Library Association	$500.00
Greenport – Floyd Memorial Library	$2,200.00
Hampton Bays Public Library	$2,200.00
Longwood Public Library	$2,200.00
Mattituck Laurel Library	$2,200.00
Montauk Library	$2,200.00
Port Jefferson Free Library	$2,200.00

Library

Aid

Arts & Education

Arts & Education

Southampton School District	$30,000.00
Springs School District	$25,000.00
Tuckahoe School District	$104,000.00