

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Jack M. Martins

Knicks, Liberty, Brooklyn Nets, NY Mets, Red Bulls, LI Rough Riders, NY Yankees, Jet Blue and Magnet Sports Lounge Donate Fabulous Prizes to Senator Martins Classic 3-on-3 Tournament!

JACK M. MARTINS June 29, 2012

Photo caption: Local basketball stars Robert "Rocky" Chambers, Anthony Elechi and Dillon Williams display autographed basketballs from the Brooklyn Nets and a size 19 basketball sneaker autographed by Nets star Center 7 foot tall Brook Lopez on the courts of Dutch Broadway school in preparation for the Martins classic 3-on-3 on July 14th.

Professional athletes and teams from New York came through in a very big way for the Senator Jack Martins 3-on-3 Basketball Tournament donating incredible prizes for event winners in the 9th annual tournament. Game tickets, jerseys, hats, collectibles and autographed basketballs will be given out to tournament players and winners. The tournament will be played on July 14th at the Dutch Broadway School in Elmont. The raindate is July 15th. Tip off is at 10am sharp, check in starts at 9am.

“Without question these are some of the best prizes the 3-on-3 has ever offered,” said Marvin Lee Tournament Vice-Chairman adding, “the response from the Knicks, Nets, Mets and Yankees has been truly extraordinary. The prizes will surely please everyone.”

The Yankees, Mets, Liberty, Red Bulls and Rough Riders have donated game tickets to games. The Brooklyn Nets have donated autographed basketballs, autographed sneakers from players, collectible hats and “Mini Net Balls” for tournament players.

“The grand prize for our college division is out of this world,” said Tournament Vice-Chairman Ian Feurtado noting, “Jet Blue is a great partner with the Senator Martins Classic and donated 4 round trip tickets anywhere in the continental United States as a grand prize. There’s no doubt that the competition will be fierce and fun.”

Dillon Williams, former All County Basketball Star from Elmont Memorial High School and current Dowling College Basketball shooting guard, announced the Magnet Challenge Division grand prize of 4 diamond watches for tournament winners of the High School 11th and 12th grade division. “The Magnet Challenge is going to be real exciting to watch. Magnet Sports Lounge is really proud to not only be part of the greater community, but to support our young people in this great day with Senator Martins.”

Senator Jack Martins, the sponsor of the tournament, noted, “the excitement that is building for the 3-on-3 is incredible. Everywhere you go, our young people are buzzing about the day. I can’t wait for the opening tip-off and am very proud of the effort the tournament committee and volunteers.”

The 3-on-3 Tournament is being played on July 14th at the Dutch Broadway School. Basketball Tournament forms can be attained by emailing dutchtourney@gmail.com or by calling Senator Martins’ office at 746-5924.