Senator Charles J. Fuschillo, Jr. (R-Merrick) recently welcomed Cub Scouts from Pack 696 to his Massapequa Office. The scouts, who are all 4th grade students at Birch Lane Elementary School, met with Senator Fuschillo to learn about “citizenship in the community.”

Senator Fuschillo talked to the scouts about his job as a New York State Senator, how new laws are made, and the importance of becoming involved in their community. He also listened to the scouts’ ideas for new laws and answered questions about how government works.

The scouts who met with Senator Fuschillo are Daniel Siani, Scott Friske, Jack Garofalo, J.J. Vogt, Sean Buchanan, Kieran Winthrop, and Joshua Johnson.
