Senator Golden Invites Families to Take Part in His Annual Easter Egg Hunts

MARTIN J. GOLDEN March 18, 2013

Brooklyn- State Senator Martin J. Golden (R-C-I, Brooklyn), today is announcing plans to host two Easter Egg Hunts this month for the children and families of his district.

The first Easter Egg Hunt will take place on Saturday, March 23, 2013, will start at Noon in Marine Park, Fillmore Avenue and Madison Place.

On Saturday, March 30, 2013, an Easter Egg Hunt has been planned for Shore Road Park, at 79th Street and Shore Road, to begin at 2:00 p.m.

The Easter Egg hunt events include games, music, activities and prizes for the children.

Senator Golden stated, " I encourage all children and families to join in this fun event. The challenge is on to find the eggs hidden in the parks for a chance to win prizes. These special events in our parks are what makes our community a great place to live, work and raise a family."
