

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Joseph E. Robach

Community Connection for Week Ending Sunday, March 31st

JOSEPH E. ROBACH March 28, 2013

The budget provides much-needed tax relief to middle-class families, helps businesses create jobs, and for the third consecutive year, keeps spending growth below two percent.

Other highlights of the 2013-2014 NYS Budget include:

- Small Business Tax Relief
- Reduces Energy Taxes
- Provides tax credit for businesses who hire veterans returning home from military service
- Expands job training programs
- Increases statewide aide to education
- Property Tax relief

For more details, log on to www.robach.nysenate.gov.

Thursday, April 4th, UNICON will hold its 4th Annual Robert Brown Awards and Scholarship Luncheon from Noon until 1:30 p.m. at the Rochester Riverside Convention Center.

Project Scion Studio will hold a open house and unveil its 2013 artists on Friday night, April 5th. The open house is from 6:00 until 9:00 p.m. and the studio is located at 250 N. Goodman Street.

Carriage Factory Breaks Ground in Rochester

Recently, I had the

Saturday, April 6th, Rochester Ice Cats will hold their annual Friendship Tournament at MCC Sports Centre Ice Rink from 11:45 a.m. until 1:15

In this week's Community Connection: details regarding the 2013-2014 New York State Budget, which was passed by the Senate earlier this week; upcoming events in the week ahead, and DePaul breaks ground on a new project to rehabilitate the Carriage Factory on Litchfield Street. To read this week's Community Connection in full screen view, click on the PDF link below. Happy Passover and Happy Easter!